JOHN 9

BIG MOVE: Because my eyes have SEEN the glory of Christ, I will OBEY God.

BIG MOVE: Because my eyes have SEEN the glory of Christ, I will OBEY God.

UNASHAMED

Read John 9 & 10. Right worship always leads to right obedience. When we worship the person of God, we will also obey God in the direction of His will. Worship aligns our will to obey, and fills our spirits with power to do crazy, radical things that God calls us to do, which leads to a life of “I see, I obey.”

REVIEW

What type of healing did the blind man receive? Was it only physical? _____

Why must worship lead to obedience? Can you give an example of this in your own life. _____

ASSESS

There are seven critical steps of obedience for the unashamed worshiper that come from rightly seeing the glory of Jesus Christ.

- I see His salvation, I obey by giving my life to Christ.
- I see His relationship with me, I obey by professing in baptism.
- I see His love for me, I obey by meeting with God.
- I see His love for all, I obey by proclaiming the Gospel.
- I see His heart for the community, I obey by engaging in community.
- I see His forgiveness, I obey by forgiving others.
- I see His holiness, I obey by turning from sin.

The first two things on this list happen only once, while the last five things happen over and over in our lives. What was it about Jesus that stirred your heart to be saved and baptized? _____

Consider the last five things on this list. In what way do you need to make a decision toward obedience this week? Be specific and write it down here: _____

How does a life of “I see, I obey” cultivate unashamed worship in your heart? How can you pursue unashamed worship increasingly throughout your lifetime? _____

APPLY

Spend time this week in prayer thanking the Lord for the ways He has opened your eyes to see His glory, and from that place of awe and thankfulness, walk forward in obedience to Him. Share with your small group the specific way you are walking forward in obedience and allow them to hold you accountable.
